Information Provided by the Wisconsin Elections Commission

WHAT DOES A WISCONSIN STATE ID CARD LOOK LIKE?

The look of a State of Wisconsin ID card can vary depending on when your ID was issued. Here are photos of some of the most common State of Wisconsin ID cards:

CAN I USE A STATE OF WISCONSIN ID CARD TO VOTE IN WISCONSIN?

Yes! A State of Wisconsin ID card can be used to vote in Wisconsin. Please note, that it must be a State of Wisconsin ID Card. ID cards from other states may not be used for voting in Wisconsin.

WHAT IS A STATE OF WISCONSIN ID CARD?

A State of Wisconsin ID card is an identification card issued by the Wisconsin Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV).

CAN MY WISCONSIN STATE ID CARD BE EXPIRED?

You may still use your expired State of Wisconsin ID card for voting as long as it has expired since November 8, 2016 (currently the last General Election).

DOES MY STATE OF WISCONSIN ID CARD NEED TO HAVE MY CURRENT ADDRESS ON IT?

No. Your State of Wisconsin ID card does not need to have a current address on it. When you present your photo ID to receive a ballot in the next election, the poll workers will not be looking at the address. However, if you still need to register to vote at your address, you will need to present a document called proof of residence that proves where you live. This could be your State of Wisconsin ID card or it could be another document such as a utility bill.

WHAT WILL THE ELECTION WORKER BE LOOKING FOR ON MY STATE OF WISCONSIN ID CARD?

The election worker will be looking for three things on your State of Wisconsin ID card:

- 1) Your Photo. Election workers know looks can change, but please make sure that if your appearance has significantly changed that your photo still reasonably resembles you.
- 2) Your Name. Poll workers will be looking to see that your name matches what is on the poll book. It doesn't need to be an exact match. For example, if your ID says "Robert" but your voter registration says "Bob," that's ok!
- 3) An Expiration Date. They will be checking to see that your Wisconsin State ID card is either unexpired or has expired since November 8, 2016 (currently the last General Election).

Once your application and documentation are accepted, you will be issued a State of Wisconsin ID card photo receipt that can be used for voting purposes for 45 days. You will receive your State of Wisconsin ID Card in the mail about 10 days after you apply.

*WHAT IF I DON'T HAVE THE DOCUMENTS NEEDED TO GET A STATE OF WISCONSIN ID CARD?

A document petition process is available at the WI DMV if you apply for a State of Wisconsin ID card and your documents to prove U.S. citizenship, name and date of birth, and/or legal name change are unavailable. If you do not have the documents mentioned above, DMV staff will work with you to verify your records through other means. You can still get a free State of Wisconsin ID card on the day you visit the DMV even if you are unable to provide the documents listed above.

WHAT ELSE DO I NEED TO KNOW ABOUT STATE OF WISCONSIN ID CARDS?

- You can renew your State of Wisconsin ID card online at <http://wisconsin.gov/Pages/dmv/license-drvs/lst-or-stoln/duplicate-id.aspx>.
- State of Wisconsin ID cards are available for free, just check the "Free ID for voting purposes" box on the application form.
- The WI DOT may punch a hole over the expiration date to void a State of Wisconsin ID card. Hole-punched cards are invalid; therefore, not an acceptable ID for voting purposes if the expiration date, or other information, cannot be read.
